Feb 08 Newsletter

Welcome back! We're back in 08 with a new program and another exciting year of film. We'll be kicking off our year with the free weekend this weekend at the R.L. Campbell Theatre, guest programmed by Claire Smith of the multimedia department at La Trobe. For more details see below.

We'd like to take this opportunity to invite our past members and friends to come along to the free weekend - if you've thought about coming back but have been too shy to ask, this weekend is the time to come and chat. All welcome, tell your friends!

Also, we'd like to take this opportunity to welcome Hilma Hallam back as our Treasurer for this year. We're glad to have Hilma back and look forward to many reimbursements from her ☺
